

What Would It Be Like

If I no longer saw your face each day

Your smile and hair as you look my way

The kiss from your sweet lips

The sensuous curve of your hips

If I no longer felt your touch

The comfort that means so much

The loving caress that transports me

Away from the worries that trouble me

If I no longer had you

My best friend and lover too

What would it be like and what would I do

If I no longer had you

4/14/2009 3:48 PM